A. The Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases

6. On October 15, 2018 (the “Petition Date”), and continuing thereafter, each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors continue to operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1107(a) and 1108. The Chapter 11 Cases are jointly administered for procedural purposes only. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases.

8. On October 24, 2018 (the “Formation Date”), the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 2 (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed the Creditors’ Committee pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1102(a). Notice of Appointment of Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF No. 276]. The Creditors’ Committee currently comprises eight members.<sup>2</sup> Simon Property Group, L.P. serves as chair of the Creditors’ Committee (the “Chair”).

9. On January 3, 2019, the U.S. Trustee filed the Motion of United States Trustee for Order Authorizing Appointment of Independent Fee Examiner [ECF No. 1490]. On April 22, 2019, this Court entered the Fee Examiner Order [ECF No. 3307]. On the same day, Paul E. Harner was appointed as fee examiner in the Chapter 11 Cases (the “Fee Examiner”). The Fee Examiner has retained Ballard Spahr LLP as legal counsel.

B. The Jointly Asserted Causes of Action

10. Pursuant to the Confirmation Order, the Court granted the Creditors’ Committee joint standing with the Debtors and authorized it to investigate, commence, prosecute, settle and otherwise dispose of certain claims and causes of action (collectively, “Jointly Asserted Causes of Action”) jointly with the Debtors for the benefit of the Debtors’ estates and creditors in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Jointly Asserted Causes of Action are overseen by designees who will be the initial members of the Liquidation Trust Board upon consummation of the Plan (such members, the “Litigation Designees”).<sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup> The initial members of the Liquidating Trust Board will be: (i) Patrick Bartels; (ii) Alan Carr; (iii) Eugene Davis; (iv) William Transier; and (v) Raphael Wallander.

11. Due to certain potential conflict issues, the Creditors' Committee selected Moritt Hock to serve as special conflicts counsel with respect to matters pertaining to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action.

C. Retention of Moritt Hock as Special Litigation Counsel

12. On January 2, 2020, the Creditors' Committee selected Moritt Hock as its special conflicts counsel in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases") in order to investigate the transactions underlying the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action. On April 9, 2020, the Creditors' Committee filed its application to retain and employ Moritt Hock as its special conflicts counsel [ECF No. 7798] (the "Moritt Hock Retention Application"), which application was authorized by an order of this Court dated April 30, 2020 [ECF No. 7884] (the "Moritt Hock Retention Order").

13. Designees during the Compensation Period in the amount of $29,686.00 and expense reimbursements of $503.08. During the Compensation Period, Moritt Hock attorneys and paraprofessionals expended a total of 69.30 hours for which compensation is sought.

20. The fees charged by Moritt Hock in the Chapter 11 Cases are billed in accordance with Moritt Hock's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. The rates Moritt Hock charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in the Chapter 11 Cases are the same rates Moritt Hock charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy related matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market. The disclosures required by the U.S. Trustee Guidelines regarding the customary and comparable compensation are annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

21. Moritt Hock maintains computerized records of the time spent by all Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals in connection with its representation of the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees in the Chapter 11 Cases. A summary of compensation by timekeeper is attached hereto in Exhibit C, and a summary of fees by task code is attached hereto in Exhibit D. The itemized time records for Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals performing services for the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees during the Compensation Period records have been filed and served in the Monthly Fee Statements in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order.

22. Moritt Hock also maintains records of all actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of its professional services. A summary of the categories of expenses and amounts for which reimbursement is requested by this Application is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES PERFORMED BY MORITT HOCK DURING THE COMPENSATION PERIOD

23. The services provided by Moritt Hock during the Compensation Period were actual and necessary for the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases, performed at the request of the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees and commensurate with the complexity and significance of the matter. The variety and complexity of the issues in the Chapter 11 Cases and the need to act or respond to such issues on an expedited basis in furtherance of the Creditors' Committee's and the Litigation Designees' needs and the interests of the Debtors' unsecured creditors required the expenditure of significant time by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals from numerous legal disciplines during the Compensation Period.

24. The following is a summary of the professional services rendered by Moritt Hock during the Compensation Period. This summary is organized in accordance with the ABA Bankruptcy Code Set, commonly used in bankruptcy matters. In classifying services into task codes, Moritt Hock attempted to place the services performed in the category that most closely related to the services provided. The below does not include summaries for certain task codes for which a de minimis amount of time was billed during the Compensation Period.

25. Moreover, the following summary of services rendered during the Compensation Period is not intended to be a detailed description of the work performed. Rather, it merely is an attempt to highlight certain of those areas in which services were rendered to the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees, as well as to identify some of the matters and issues that Moritt Hock was required to address during the Compensation Period.

26. This category includes time spent by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessional performing various administrative services in order to represent the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees effectively and efficiently, including, among other things, (i) reviewing and analyzing pleadings and other documents filed by the Debtors and third parties relating to the 2004 investigation and the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action; (ii) apprising Moritt Hock attorneys and paraprofessionals of recent filings and upcoming deadlines; (iii) preparing internal task lists and case calendars; and (iv) communicating with Akin Gump, primary counsel to the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees.

27. Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals also monitored the dockets for the Chapter 11 Cases and the adversary proceeding captioned Sears Holdings Corp. v Lampert, Adv. Pro. 19-08250 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.) (the "Adversary Proceeding") to remain apprised of all critical matters. For each significant filing, Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals worked to ensure that the appropriate parties were notified of its contents, relevant response deadlines, hearing dates and any other critical matters related thereto.

28. Moritt Hock believes it was able to address all case management issues in connection with matters within the scope of its engagement in an effective and efficient manner.

B160 - FEE/EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

Total Hours	Fees
57.40	$23,450.50

29. This category includes the time spent by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals preparing and drafting, inter alia: (a) the Monthly Fee Statements; and (b) the Second Interim Fee Application.

30. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, each of the Monthly Fee Statements contained a list of individuals who rendered services to the Creditors' Committee during the relevant compensation period, information as to each individual's title, billing rate and hours worked and a comprehensive breakdown of the fees incurred and disbursements expended. To minimize costs in connection with this time-intensive process, Moritt Hock relied on paraprofessionals to prepare the initial drafts of the Monthly Fee Statements, thereby limiting the time spent by attorneys on the review of fees, where reasonably practicable.

31. Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals have also communicated with, and responded to requests from, representatives from M-III Partners respecting, among other things, weekly accrual information.

B120 – ASSET ANALYSIS AND RECOVERY

Total Hours	Fees
11.40	$6,105.50

32. This category includes time spent by Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals in connection with their role as Special Conflicts Counsel to the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees, pursuant to the Moritt Hock Retention Order.

Through this role, Moritt is, among other things, conducting the investigation of certain transactions underlying the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action.

33. Specifically, Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals, among other things: (i) reviewed relevant pleadings and underlying facts relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action; (ii) served and followed up upon subpoenas for the production of documents in connection with prosecution of the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action; (iii) reviewed and analyzed materials produced in response to subpoenas; (iv) met and conferred with counsel to the subpoenaed parties to resolve discovery disputes related to the scope of the document requests; and (v) coordinated with counsel prosecuting actions against certain public shareholders of Sears, Lands End, and Seritage securities.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS

34. Moritt Hock seeks allowance of reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $503.08 for expenses incurred during the Compensation Period in the course of providing professional services to the Creditors' Committee. Moritt Hock's disbursement policies pass through all out-of-pocket expenses at actual cost or an estimated actual cost when the actual cost is difficult to determine. For example, as it relates to computerized research, Moritt Hock believes that it does not make a profit on that service as a whole although the cost of any particular search is difficult to ascertain. Other reimbursable expenses (whether the service is performed by Moritt Hock in-house or through a third-party vendor) include, but are not limited to, long-distance calls, overtime meals, deliveries, discovery, telephonic court appearances and travel.

FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED IN AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES

35. Bankruptcy Code section 330 provides, in relevant part, that the Court may award to a professional person “reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered[.]” See 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). In turn, Bankruptcy Code section 330 provides as follows:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed; and
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonably based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

36. The clear congressional intent and policy expressed in Bankruptcy Code section 330 is to provide for adequate compensation in order to continue to attract qualified and competent bankruptcy practitioners to bankruptcy cases. In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 20 (Bantu. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (“Congress’ objective in requiring that the market, not the Court, establish attorneys' rates was to ensure that bankruptcy cases were staffed by appropriate legal specialists."); In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 850 (3d. Cir.1994) (citations and internal quotations omitted) ("Congress rather clearly intended to provide sufficient economic incentive to lure competent bankruptcy specialists to practice in the bankruptcy courts.").

37. In assessing the "reasonableness" of the fees requested, the Second Circuit has stated that courts should consider the factors enumerated in Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., while also incorporating the "lodestar method." See Arbor Hill Concerned Citizens Neighborhood Ass'n v. County of Albany and Albany County Bd. of Elections, 522 F.3d 182, 190 (2d Cir. 2007) (citing Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir.1974), abrogated on other grounds by Blanchard v. Bergeron, 489 U.S. 87, 92-93, 96 (1989)). The "lodestar method" of calculating the reasonable fee contemplates "the number of hours reasonably expended . . . multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate." See Hensley v. Eckerhart et al., 461 U.S. 424, 433 (1983); Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 801 (2002); Perdue v. Kenny A., 130 S.Ct. 1662, 1672 (2010); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc. 133 B.R. 13 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 1991). The factors set forth in Johnson and In re First Colonial Corp. of Am., 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977) have been adopted by most courts.<sup>8</sup> See In re Nine Assocs., Inc., 76 B.R. 943, 945 (S.D.N.Y. 1987) (adopting First Colonial/Johnson analysis); In re Cuisine Magazine, Inc., 61 B.R. 210, 212-13 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y 1986) (same); Green v. City of New York, 403 Fed. Appx. 626, 629 (2d Cir. 2010) (summary order); see generally 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 330.03[9] (Lawrence P. King ed., 16th ed. 2016) (describing First Colonial and

<sup>8</sup> The factors articulated by the Fifth Circuit in First Colonial were first articulated by the Fifth Circuit in Johnson, with the First Colonial out adding the factor of the "spirit of economy," which was later rejected by Congress. See Stroock & Stroock & Lavan v. Hillsborough Holdings Corp. (In re Hillsborough Holdings Corp.), 127 F.3d 1398, 1403 (11th Cir. 1997).

Johnson as the “leading cases to be considered in determining a reasonable allowance of compensation”).

38. Moritt Hock respectfully submits that a consideration of these factors should result in the Court’s allowance of the full compensation sought in this Application.

- a. Time and Labor Required. Moritt Hock billed a total of 36 hours of professional services and 33.30 hours of paraprofessional and other non-legal services during the Compensation Period. As evidenced by this Application, Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals worked diligently and efficiently without unnecessary duplication of efforts throughout the Compensation Period. This is especially true when considering the nature and complexity of the issues that arose in the Chapter 11 Cases during the Compensation Period. In particular, the Compensation Period involved many material issues that required analysis of data, researching of applicable case law, and follow-up with subpoenaed parties on their productions or lack thereof. Moritt Hock respectfully submits that the hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of the Chapter 11 Cases and the significant legal issues raised.
- b. Novelty and Difficulty of the Questions. Moritt Hock tasked knowledgeable attorneys to research, analyze and provide advice on difficult and complex bankruptcy, litigation, finance and other issues. As further described herein, Moritt Hock’s skilled teams assisted the Creditors’ Committee and the Litigation Designees in researching and analyzing legal issues pertaining to third party challenges to the service of subpoenas, including claims of immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act and objections based on the Hague Convention.
- c. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly. Moritt Hock believes that its recognized expertise in the area of bankruptcy litigation and corporate restructuring, its ability to draw from highly experienced professionals in other areas of Moritt Hock’s practice and its creative approach to the resolution of issues has benefited the Creditors’ Committee and the Litigation Designees. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues Moritt Hock was retained to investigate and/or prosecute in the Chapter 11 Cases, Moritt Hock was required to exhibit a high degree of legal skill in areas related to, inter alia, bankruptcy and litigation matters. Additionally, Moritt Hock’s strong working relationship with the Creditors’ Committee’s and Litigation Designees’ other legal advisors enabled Moritt Hock to work with such advisors to track and analyze data produced by subpoenaed parties and address relevant legal issues during the course of its investigation.

- d. Preclusion of Other Employment by Applicant Due to Acceptance of the Case. Although Moritt Hock's representation of the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees did not preclude its acceptance of new clients, the demands for immediate and substantive action in connection with the investigation relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action imposed significant burdens on Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals working concurrently on other matters.
- e. Customary Fee. The rates Moritt Hock charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in the Chapter 11 Cases are the same rates Moritt Hock charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable non-bankruptcy matters. Moritt Hock's fee structure also is equivalent to the fee structure used by Moritt Hock for restructuring, workout, bankruptcy, insolvency and comparable matters, as well as similar complex corporate and litigation matters, whether in-court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required. The firm's customary hourly rates and rate structure reflect that restructuring and related matters typically involve great complexity, numerous tasks requiring a high level of expertise and severe time pressures, as is the case here. Moritt Hock's rate structure is similar to the rate structure used by other, similar law firms that work on other, similar matters.
- f. Whether the Fee Is Fixed or Contingent. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 330 and 331, all fees sought by professionals employed under Bankruptcy Code section 1103 are contingent pending final approval by the Court and are subject to adjustment depending upon the services rendered and the results obtained. The contingency of full and actual compensation to Moritt Hock increased the risk Moritt Hock was assuming by representing the Creditors' Committee as special conflicts counsel in the Chapter 11 Cases.
- g. Time Limitations Imposed by the Client or Other Circumstances. As previously set forth herein, Moritt Hock was required to attend to certain issues arising in the investigation relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action under compressed timelines. The tremendous efforts of Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals in completing this work permitted the Creditors' Committee and the Litigation Designees to address effectively various issues for the benefit of the Debtors' unsecured creditors.
- h. Amount Involved and Results Obtained. Moritt Hock professionals and paraprofessionals worked diligently to maximize value for the Debtors' estates and creditors. During the Compensation Period, and as described in the summary of services herein, Moritt Hock was instrumental in maximizing value for the benefit of unsecured creditors. In particular, Moritt Hock's efforts in connection with, among other things, the investigation relating to the Jointly Asserted Causes of Action effectively maximized the potential assets available for distribution to unsecured creditors. Moritt Hock respectfully submits that the fees requested in this Application are reasonable and appropriate when considering the results obtained on behalf of unsecured creditors as more fully described in the summary of services.

- i. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Attorneys. Attorneys in Moritt Hock's Litigation & Restructuring group are consistently recognized as leading attorneys in the field of bankruptcy and bankruptcy related litigation as well as creditors' rights, business reorganizations and liquidations under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. During the Compensation Period, Moritt Hock solicited the skill and expertise of its attorneys, a number of which have practiced law for over 20 years in a number of jurisdictions and legal disciplines. Moritt Hock attorneys have actively represented creditors and creditors' committees, as well as other parties in interest, in chapter 11 cases. Moritt Hock's extensive experience enables it to perform the services described herein competently and expeditiously.
- j. "Undesirability" of the Cases. This factor is not applicable to the Chapter 11 Cases.
- k. Nature and Length of Professional Relationship. Moritt Hock has been rendering professional services to the Creditors' Committee since it was selected as special conflicts counsel to the Creditors' Committee on January 2, 2020.

39. For the reasons set forth above, the services rendered by Moritt Hock were necessary and beneficial to the Creditors' Committee and consistently performed in a timely manner. The compensation sought in this Application is reasonable in light of the value of such services to the Creditors' Committee and all unsecured creditors, Moritt Hock's demonstrated skill and expertise in the bankruptcy field (as well as other areas of expertise relevant to the Chapter 11 Cases) and the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners at Moritt Hock. Accordingly, Moritt Hock respectfully submits that the Court should approve the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein.

40. No agreement or understanding exists between Moritt Hock and any other person for the sharing of any compensation to be received for professional services rendered or to be rendered in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases. No prior application has been made in this Court or in any other court for the relief requested herein as it relates to the Compensation Period.

ATTORNEY STATEMENT PURSUANT TO U.S. TRUSTEE GUIDELINES

41. The following is provided in response to the request for additional information set forth in ¶ C.5. of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines.

Question: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period? If so, please explain.

Response: No.

Question: If the fees sought in this fee application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this fee application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Response: Not applicable.

Question: Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Response: No.

Question: Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices? (This is limited to work involved in preparing and editing billing records that would not be compensable outside of bankruptcy and does not include reasonable fees for preparing a fee application.). If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Response: Yes. During the Compensation Period, approximately 57.40 hours and $23,450.50 in fees were spent reviewing time records for compliance with the Fee Guidelines. Most of these fees were incurred in connection with the preparation and filing of the Second Interim Fee Application and hearing in connection therewith.

Question: Does this fee application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information? If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Response: See above.

Question: If the fee application includes any rate increases since retention: (i) Did your client review and approve those rate increases in advance? (ii) Did your client agree when retaining the law firm to accept all future rate increases? If not, did you inform your client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

Response: Moritt Hock disclosed to the Creditors' Committee the hourly rates charged at the time of its retention. Moritt Hock increased its rates on December 1, 2020, consistent with its customary practice and as disclosed in the Moritt Hock Retention Application (as defined herein).

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

To the extent that there are services rendered or expenses incurred that relate to the Compensation Period but were not processed prior to the preparation of the Application, Moritt Hock reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Moritt Hock respectfully requests: (i) an interim allowance of compensation for professional services rendered during the Compensation Period in the amount of $29,686.00 and expense reimbursement in the amount of $503.08; (ii) the allowance of such compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred be without prejudice to Moritt Hock's right to seek additional compensation for services performed and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period which were not processed at the time of the Application; and (iii) such other and further relief as the Court deems just, proper and equitable.
